Meeting the World Weekly at Three Rivers

May 20th - The Great Ohio Bicycle Adventure will roll into Coshocton June 18, 19, and 20. Over 2500 bicyclists will be in Coshocton for three days. Many visitors will spend the night at Lake Park in tents while others will stay in local hotels and at Kids America. Lori Everhart from Lake Park told Rotarians that this trip to Coshocton will be a first for many tourists. Help show our best and bring them back!

May 13th - Retired General, David Hartley from the USERRA spoke to Rotarians about the importance of working with our military personnel, specifically the reserves. These service men and women are a very important part of today's military. Having a supportive employer makes serving much less stressful.

Guests and Visitors

May 20th - Ted Foster, visiting Rotarian from New Philadelphia.

Mike & Charlene Bantum from Roscoe Hillside Cabins, guest of Curt Crouso.

Phantom Files

Preston Bair was the Phantom on May 20th. Tim Vance was #3 followed by Cecilia Balogh at #4.

Rotarian name badges are back in alphabetical order in the badge box. Those who couldn't find their badge were fined $1.00.

Operation Smile Update

Coshocton Rotarians have contributed over $800.00 to Operation Smile. Please see President, Christie Nelson if you would like to make a contribution.
