Meeting the World Weekly at Three Rivers - Coshocton Alumni Association

Duane Myers spoke to Coshocton Rotarians about the Coshocton Alumni Association on Tuesday, June 17th.

Coshocton Alumni Association Fast Facts:

Currently has over nine thousands contacts.

Based on a colligate alumni association template.

Will improve communication through newsletters, website, email, and mailings.

Assist with developing activities, reunions, festivals, etc.

Ultimate goal is to raise funds to build schools, update technology, promote opportunities, and be the central communication source for Coshocton Alumni.

Guests

Juan Felipe Arce Correa - short-term exchange student from Columbia.

PJ Bair - son of Preston Bair.

Club Hub

Steve Mercer commended Tim France for the floral arrangement depicting the Coshocton City Flag at city hall.

Barb reported that Bob Johnson peacefully passed away at his home in Athens.

The club officers ballot was announced for 2008-09. Following a motion and second, officers were elected unanimously. New officers will be introduced and installed soon.

The phantom was Bill Brown on June 17th. Casey Claxon was #3 followed by Dave Irwin at #4.

Rotarians who had read a book within the last week were fine free. All others paid a dollar.

Amy Hasseman updated the club on board action to donate $2,000 to the Rotary Youth Leadership Program. The board also approved $1,500 (x 3 years) for the Dollywood Foundation Literacy Program to provide new books to children in our community.

The next club social will be at Lock 27 on June 25th at 5pm.

There was no big winner in the weekly drawing. The jackpot stands at $222.25.

A new directory is being produced for 2008-09. See Bill Brown with changes to your contact information.

Upcoming Events

June 24th - Final meeting of the 2007-08 Rotary Year - President Christie's Year in Review. Bring your golf putter (if raining, your thinking cap).
